The following texts are for the 2006 Regional Language Literature Challenge.

It is advisable that teams are familiar with some, if not all, before the Challenge arrives in schools for the commencement of the 6 week period required to solve this year’s Challenges.

Facilitators may instruct their teams on the content of this material before the Challenges arrive. During the 6 week period when teams are solving the Challenges NO assistance may be given, including interpretation of the following texts.

- “Eleanor Rigby” – Song (Lyrics by Lennon/McCartney)
- Holes – Louis Sacher
- Twelfth Night – play, William Shakespeare
- Miss Gee – poem, W H Auden
- Antigone – play, Sophocles
- When Sophie gets Angry, Really, Really, Angry – Molly Bang
- The Quicksand Pony – Alison Lester
- Thursday’s Child – Sonya Hartnett
- “Pay it Forward” – Film, released 2000, with Kevin Spacey
- “Guernica” – painting, Pablo Picasso
- Lucy’s Bay – Gary Crew
- The Cay – Theodore Taylor
- The October Child – Eleanor Spence

If you require any further information please contact the TOM Director in your State or Territory.